Brief history of the PSC

• Founded in 1988 by a steering committee led by Priscilla Gray and Prof. Robert Mann ’50 under the direction of Shirley McBay, dean for student affairs
• Began with an emphasis on local service
• Expanded scope to also enable national and international service
• During the 2011-2012 academic year:
  – The PSC enabled over 2,000 MIT students to engage in public service
  – Students served locally, around the U.S. in 19 states, and around the world in 19 countries
Celebrating the 25th anniversary

• Goals
  – Raise the profile of the PSC
  – Expand platform for fundraising
• Engaging with key audiences, including alumni and donors
• Various events in conjunction with alumni clubs, PSC Leadership Council, Tech Reunions
Celebrating the 25th anniversary

- Very important that we celebrate with the entire MIT community, including you
- Monday, September 23: MIT community-wide celebration in Lobby 10 & Bush Room (there will be cake)
- Celebrating the public service accomplishments of the entire MIT community 25th anniversary website