

Arthur C. Smith Memorial Fund Student Life Grant

The Arthur C. Smith Memorial Fund was established in memory of Arthur C. Smith, Dean for Undergraduate Education and Student Affairs from 1990 through 1995. The purpose of this fund is to support MIT student-initiated ideas that create a sense of community within MIT, achieving a positive impact on people within or beyond the MIT community. The Division of Student Life will present an annual grant to a selected idea.

What kind of idea? You tell us! Annual grants will be awarded and may be up to $2,000. The only requirements are:

- Your idea is student initiated
- Your idea will create a sense of community within MIT

How to apply

To apply for funding, follow these steps:

1. Submit your application to the Student Activities Office (W20-500 or funds@mit.edu).
2. A committee will review applications and announce the award recipients.
3. If your application is awarded a grant, the applicant will be notified by email.
4. After your project is complete, you must submit a project summary to SAO with quality photos.

Application information

You may submit an electronic* or hardcopy application (max: 5 pages) that includes the following:

Name of applicant: _____

Email Address: _____ Phone Number: _____

Project title: _____

*Please save the file as a PDF and name the file the same as the Project title

Project Budget, Statement of Purpose, and Project Description

Questions?

Contact the Student Activities Office (W20-500), sao-staff@mit.edu or 617-253-6777.

Good luck!