/// WELCOME
Welcome back to MIT campus and a special welcome to the new people joining the Women and Gender Services (WXGS) community!

Entering a new academic year is exciting yet can consist of challenges. Challenges can be daunting but can open doors to many amazing opportunities and connections. We at WXGS and The Cheney Room staff can help you along this new voyage of academia.

Women and Gender Services (WXGS)

I hope you had a wonderful summer and took lots of nice breaks in the sun!

Re-introducing myself: Nandini Choudhury (she/hers), and I am the Assistant Director of Women and Gender Services (WXGS)!

A little bit about me: I’m a queer, South Asian American, born and bred New Englander. I'm an avid reader of science fiction, fantasy, and horror. I love to travel and enjoy discovering new foods along the way. My favorite pastime is playing the piano and enjoying the great outdoors.
Fast Facts about Nandini:

- I did a 325 mile bike trip
- Dabbled in Mixed Martial Arts
- Hiked Mt. Sinai in Egypt

/// UPDATES & ANNOUNCEMENTS

WXGS’ September Book Recs.

Leah on the Offbeat by Becky Albertalli

TAGS: Bi/pan, Queer, Romance

Description: Follow Leah as she grapples with changing friendships, first love, and senior year angst. She loves to draw but is too self-conscious to show it. And even though her mom knows she’s bisexual, she hasn’t mustered the courage to tell her friends. Leah finds her footing even when it’s difficult.

Mexican Gothic by Silvia Moreno-Garcia

TAGS: Latina/x, Mystery/thriller, Historical fiction

Description: Noemí Taboada heads to a house in the Mexican countryside on a rescue mission. Noemí is also an unlikely rescuer: She's a glamorous debutante, and her chic gowns and perfect red lipstick are more suited for cocktail parties than amateur sleuthing. But she's also tough and smart, with an indomitable will, and she is not afraid.
