Signs of an alcohol or prohibited substance related emergency can include a combination of:
lack of coordination | inability to stand | confusion | slurred speech | erratic behavior | slow or shallow breathing | pale or clammy skin | vomiting while passed out

Did you or someone in your organization call for or try and get help?

Yes

Did you or others in your organization violate any of the following policies: sexual assault, hazing, weapon possession, manufacture and/or distribution of drugs?

Yes

You ARE NOT protected by the GSAP.
You or others in your organization will be contacted by staff for follow-up with the Committee on Discipline.

No

You ARE NOT protected by the GSAP.
In instances where students or student organizations do not seek help for a student in need or do not follow through with required educational and/or counseling program(s), students or student organizations may no longer have protection and disciplinary follow-up through the Committee on Discipline (COD) may occur.

No

Were you the caller?

Yes

You are a bystander and will not face disciplinary action.

No

Were you the intoxicated person in need of transport?

Yes

You ARE protected by the GSAP.
You or others in your organization will be contacted by the Office of Community Development and Substance Abuse to engage in educational and counseling programming.

No

Were you intoxicated?

Yes

You are a bystander and will not face disciplinary action.

No

You are a bystander and will not face disciplinary action.

For more information about this policy and the related policies listed above, scan here: