Dear Graduate Student,

The team at MIT Housing & Residential Services (HRS) is pleased to share information with graduate students living on- and off-campus regarding the 2020-2021 housing timeline and processes. These lotteries are for full-time degree seeking graduate students who are eligible to register in Fall 2020 and are interested in (i) moving to a different residence hall, or (ii) seeking on-campus housing. Below, please find details regarding each of the housing processes, living options, as well as 2020-2021 housing rates. As always, if you have any questions, or if HRS may be of any assistance as you consider your housing options, please do not hesitate to reach out.

Sincerely,

TASHA COPPETT
Assistant Director of Off Campus & Graduate Housing
Housing & Residential Services

2020-2021 HOUSING TIMELINES & KEY DATES
OPTION #1
BUILDING SWITCH PROCESS
for the Graduate Tower at Site 4

All students eligible to register in Fall 2020 as MIT full-time degree seeking graduate students living on campus (regardless of license status), or off campus, may apply through the MyHousing portal to live in the Graduate Tower at Site 4. This lottery takes place before the General Housing Allocation process and provides current graduate students with advance access to housing opportunities within Graduate Tower at Site 4 (see link below). Please find the relevant dates for this process also below.

Monday, March 9, 2020 - Sunday, March 22, 2020 (at 9:00 am)

- Building switch applications for the Graduate Tower at Site 4 allocation may be submitted through the MyHousing portal. Applications must be received by March 22, 2020 at 9:00 am.

Monday, March 23, 2020

- Building switch results for the Graduate Tower at Site 4 allocation are released.
Learn more about the Graduate Tower at Site 4.

Information such as typical residential floor layouts, square footage of each unit type and furniture details are available by clicking the button below.

OPTION #2
HOUSING ALLOCATION PROCESS
for ALL Graduate Housing Options

This is the traditional housing lottery process for graduate students at MIT. This lottery is for full-time degree seeking graduate students who are eligible to register in Fall 2020 and are interested in (i) moving to a different residence hall, or (ii) seeking on-campus housing. You may rank your preferences for ANY of the eight graduate housing options within your application.

To view information about each of the eight graduate residence halls and housing rates, which are fully inclusive of all utilities, please click on the link below. This lottery includes the Graduate Tower at Site 4 (for those who did not participate in the earlier process listed under Option #1).
Click below to view the unit types available for couples and students with children.

FAMILY ELIGIBILITY CHART

Wednesday, March 25, 2020 - Sunday, April 26, 2020

- Applications available for graduate students to enter housing allocation. This process allows application for all on-campus graduate residences. Applications must be received by April 26, 2020 at 11:59pm.

Friday, May 8, 2020

- Housing allocation results are released with move-in dates.

WE ARE HERE TO HELP

In Person
HRS staff are available to meet individually with graduate students to discuss housing options, policies and processes. Please e-mail HRS to set up an appointment or stop by W-59.

Via Email
Have questions? We have answers. Do not hesitate to email HRS by clicking here.

By Phone
HRS is here to assist you with your housing options via phone at (617) 253-2811 Monday-Friday 9am-5pm.
OPTION #3

HOUSING ALLOCATION PROCESS II

for ALL Graduate Housing Options

This is a second opportunity for eligible graduate students to participate in the General Allocation process who have not already done so. Identical to the previous process, this lottery is for full-time degree seeking graduate students who are eligible to register in Fall 2020 and are interested in (i) moving to a different residence hall, or (ii) seeking on-campus housing. You may rank your preferences for ANY of the eight graduate housing options within your application.

Friday, May 15, 2020 - Tuesday, May 26, 2020

- Applications available for graduate students to enter housing allocation. This process allows application for all on-campus graduate residences. Applications must be received by May 26, 2020 at 11:59pm.

Friday, May 29, 2020

- Housing allocation results are released with move-in dates.

---

OPTION #4

WAITING LIST PROCESS

for ALL Graduate Housing Options

This is a housing opportunity for students who were either ineligible to participate in prior processes, or who have not yet applied for housing.

June 1, 2020

- Applications available for the graduate housing waiting list.